The Kentucky Legislature adjourned

Monday.

The Court of Appeals decided last week that an affidavit could not be deposited in the court in every case.

Ever, Henry won his nomination

by a large majority at the State convention. (Cincinnati Journal.)

He did, did he?

Ever, Henry has done nothing to win his claim to the support of

Democrats. (Cincinnati Journal.)

We would respectfully suggest to the big imbecile, that the majority of the Democrats of the State, think immediately otherwise.

Editorial Chairman of the Paris, France

Exhibition, "Confession" with Henry

at Paris. They do say, however, that the old man still persists in parading just the same as if that show were not recorded on the first page of the cover of the London Book of Life.

THOMAS MORRIS, died at his home in Owensboro, on Monday of last week. He was for many years Deputy

Circuit Clerk of Daviess county and during the war, was a Confederate soldier, being first in Maj. Jack Thompson's regiment, and afterwards captain on John Morgan's staff.

HOES, C. M. HARRISON, one of the leading members of the Kentucky

Senate, died at his home in Shelbyville last Thursday of consumption. He was a careful legislator, an able lawyer,

and the following from the Frankfort

Democrat speaks for him as a man: "There never beat in human bosom a heart which more deeply loved the right, or would more manfully maintain it."

ATWOOD, M. BRADEN, of Paducah, is this week announced as a candidate for Judge of the Superior Court. We have known Judge Braden long and have respected him as a man of high character.

He is a well-developed man, physically and mentally, not over young, not too old, but a well-developed man, in Now's the time. There is a tide in the affairs of parties as well as men, which taken in its flood leads on to fortune or success, and that tide is now at its head for the Democratic party. The vessel that will bear us on this flood has at its mast head "Tariff for revenue only." Let's all get aboard this vessel and sail into the port of success.

ALL ABOARD.

Editorial.

I see in last week's paper an account of an electric storm which threw the telegraph office at Chicago into such confusion that they were obliged to suspend business. Judging from the confusion of type in your last issue we might conclude that the storm struck

the Herald office, also.

Mistakes will be made even by members of the best families and consequently we are not exempt. The worst mistake, and perhaps the only noticeable one,

was in the article on education, by

"W. L. P." and that by "J. S. W." entitled

"Fish, Frog or Fowl." These three of the best being transferred to the latter, thereby destroying a portion of the sense of both.

A Change Came Over the Spirit of His Dream.

In 1879 the Mt. Vernon Echo was edited and published by one C. W. Woodson, a youth to fortune and to fame, not entirely unknown, for he wrote in a bold, fearless, independent manner, approved the right, condemned the wrong in whatever or wherever found and thus won for himself credit and respect. We have a faint recollection of a State Convention about May 1st, 1879,

at which the "Big Hearted" so called,

was nominated for the first place on the ticket. Also that a certain Federal captain was on the very eve of being nominated for reelection as Register of the Land office, and the wisdom of the Land office, and the wisdom of the State were thwarted by a bargain

and sale between Linn Boyd and Ralph

Sheldon, by which Sheldon was nominated, and the said Linn Boyd was Breckinridge, Meade and Hardin, which have been associated with us for many years and only recently in the Anti-slavery cause and we take great pleasure in assuring the Democrats of Daviess and especially of Christian that our gratification is not less sincere than theirs. Truly, we do regret in parting from the other counties of the old Second District, whose feelings for us are kindly, but we are truly happy to be rid of those who do now in a constantly way what they never dared to do when Ohio county was where the influence of her vote could be felt.

Daviess and Christian are the two largest counties in the District and their papers, published in the two principal towns of the District put on the style of metropolitan journals, and although they have made themselves ridiculous, they have seldom done so more completely than in this instance when they gave a kick at a county as Ohio county has been called Democrats, and true and they will vote in Congressional and Judicial elections, and will vote to vote for outside of Daviess and Christian counties.

We should be pleased to know that the South Kentucky means by calling this county the hot bed of something. Who are the scoundrels here?

What sense is there in the statement?

Has Ohio county ever failed to stand up for the party? Have we failed to support Christendom in any instance?

We have been for them before and after nomination in every instance since 1874. No public man in this county has ever failed to support the

"organ of the party" in the county has never failed to support the nomination of the party, save in the instance of Capt. Henry, and as to that instance we stand with a respectable number of the papers and a majority of the people of the county, and in every other case where a worthy man is the nominated, we have a fair record. We have a fair record in the case of Woodson in the case of the said

Woodson, and the Democratic Party,

then known as the "Long-Eared Animal," thereupon made a bargain

and sale with the said Linn Boyd,

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. F. Johnson, of Leavelle, were visitors at the Herald office last Saturday.
Miss Jeannette Leach and sister, Mrs. E. D. Williams, of Harlan, were visitors at the Herald office last Wednesday.
Mr. John A. Cone, representing the wholesale firm of W. W. Williams, Louisville, was in town a day or two this week.
Our young friend, Mr. W. J. Jones, of Harlan, was in town Sunday and Monday. He gave us a nice order for job work while here.
Mr. W. H. Cooper, representing the wholesale firm of J. E. Fowler & Co., of Louisville and New York, dealers in optical goods and jewelry, was in town Sunday and Monday. We had the pleasure of meeting him and found him to be quite a pleasant gentleman. We have a lady's gold watch and chain from this house among the list of prizes in our big drawing. Mr. Cooper took several orders while here.

Mr. E. W. Griffin, of Elizabethtown, is in town and will remain during the summer with his relatives here. Uncle Warren is quite popular here and the citizens are always glad to see him.
Mr. A. J. Brandeis, representing the wholesale grocery establishment, at Steeple Hill, Louisville, Ky., is in town. Mr. Brandeis is a son of Dr. Brandeis, of Louisville, an excellent young man and popular community leader, and represents a good firm.
Capt. Henry McHenry went to Evansville yesterday on the Grey Eagle, just to take a standard ride. His first, having one experience on a steamboat in the rough creek, a stream that runs by Harlan, the home of his happy childhood days. Times-Press Messenger.

Get up your fishing tackle. The old and red is all the go now. For cheap and new tackle, call on the Red Front.
Born, Sunday, April 23rd to the wife of J. L. Carson, living near town, a daughter. Mr. S. J. Butler, attending physician.
Lost—A solid gold circular badge, pin bearing the letters "J. M. L." at top. Finder will please call at this office and receive reward.
Remember the reunion at Mt. Carmel church next Sunday, and don't forget to take with you a well filled basket of good things to eat.
Wanted a good live black, agent to sell an excellent and ready-selling book. For further particulars call on Barrett & Sutton.
A nice Mexican Grass Hammock, large size, plain $2.00, colored $2.50. For sale by W. E. & L. N. Parrish, Owensboro, Ky.
Will receive this week at the Red Front a new supply of candies, oranges, lemons, apples, bananas, nuts of all kinds, pickles, raspberry jam, cakes, crackers, etc.

Lost—Between Harlan and Harlan, a plain gold ring with the name of Mrs. America Wiley engraved in it. A reward of $2.50 will be paid to the finder of the same. JOHN BILEY.
We visited Litchfield last Monday, and many friends and acquaintances there, and had quite and enjoyable visit. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley returned to Harlan on Monday, but before leaving to give an account of it this week but will have something to say of Litchfield and Grayson county in the next issue.

Why will you suffer from Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, disordered bowels and similar complaints, when 25 cents will buy Bile's Digestive Salt from your druggist or grocer? It is used at the table instead of ordinary table salt. See advertisement.
Mr. W. H. Arnold, of Owensboro, will be at the Harlan House April 29th. Have him fix your teeth up for hard times, he does his work up for hard times and makes no charge for the "know how." Call and see him while here. He remains but a few days.
The time table of the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern Railroad has been changed—what took effect last Monday. The train going west passes Beaver Dam at 11:35 and going east at 1:25. The traveling public should make a note of this.
We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. Monroe Taylor. This house has been established nearly 40 years, and their goods are celebrated for purity and strength. We would recommend a trial of their Gold Medal brand to all who desire superior cookery. 824m.
If the gentleman who wrote from this place to Hon. Jim. D. White, M. C., Washington, D. C., for "some speeches on the tariff" will call at this office we will take pleasure in putting him on the track of the speeches of Beck, Turner and Carlisle on that subject. They are the speeches of the present Congress and will not doubt show Mr. White's correspondent some new light in his darkness. We are nothing if not kind.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound revives the drooping spirits, invigorates and harmonizes the organic functions; gives elasticity and firmness to the step, restores the natural lustre to the eye, and plants on the pale cheek of beauty the fresh roses of life's spring and early summer time.

Have on hand at the Red Front a choice lot of eggs and chickens.
Born to the wife of Prof. J. H. Harper, in Louisville, Thursday, April 20th, a daughter.
For pines, cranberries, raisins, dried apples, dried peaches, etc., go to the Red Front.
In bacon, lard, flour, meal, potatoes, shipstuffs, etc., the Red Front beats the town.
Don't fail to attend the reunion at Mt. Carmel church, near Buford, next Sunday.
Why did your produce away when you can get so much for it at the Red Front.
Red Front leads the town in sugars and coffee, and will guarantee satisfaction in every respect.
Late of Jesse James, giving account of his death—sold out of press, 50c. post-paid. Sold by W. E. & L. N. Parrish, Booksellers, Owensboro, Ky.
It took just a few doses of T. E. Riley's pills to cure my son of the chills. Every body praises them in this county. L. B. ALLEN.
PAIN EXTER, Ky. April 20th, 1882. DR.
Fresh-roasted peanuts constantly on hand at the Red Front.
It is a duty you owe your health and personal appearance to keep your teeth in good repair. A good dentist, then, is a necessity. Dr. W. H. Arnold is that dentist, and he will be at the Harlan House on the 29th, just to remain a few days. Give him a call.
The finest line of syrups and molasses in Harlan, at the Red Front.
Bright's Disease of the kidneys, diabetes and other diseases of the kidneys and liver, which you are being so frightened about, Hop Bitters is the only thing that will surely and permanently prevent and cure. All other pretended cures only relieve for a time, and then make you many times worse.

Uncle Joe "Jed" Bennett, of No Creek, now 72 years old, on last Thursday, broke up 27 acres of land for corn. He had a good team, but best of all he had an Oliver Chilled Plow. Uncle Joe gives much of the credit to the superior quality of the plow. Reader, go and get you an Oliver Chilled from Z. Wayne Griffin & Son, Harlan, Ky.
My stock of goods, consisting of dry goods, dress goods, notions, millinery goods, clothing, boots and shoes, hats and caps, groceries, furniture, etc., etc., is now complete and is the largest in the Green River country. A rush of business prevents me from giving my patrons a list of prices this week, but leave it for them to call and see for themselves. Respectfully, R. P. ROWE.
The boys at the McHenry Mines have been having a little fun at the expense of the engineer. The boys are in the habit of bringing their dinner to the mines in buckets and putting the buckets under the boiler while at work. Several times they mislaid the buckets on the boilers, and being anxious to know who was the perpetrator of the joke, they procured some cotton oil and put a few drops on some pie. Further portulans may be had from the victim.

Farming for profit, or pleasure, either, should be done so that the greatest amount of labor may be performed with the least cost and execution. This will not be disputed by any one and it therefore is the duty of every farmer to buy one, two, three or more of the celebrated Oliver Chilled Plows from Griffin & Son. They are by far the best plows made. Ask your neighbor what he thinks of the one he bought some time ago and he will advise you to come to Harlan and buy an Oliver Chilled.
Prof. A. H. Ellwood, of Warsaw, Ind., is in town, the guest of Judge W. F. Gregory. Prof. E. lectured last evening at Court Hall on the subject of "Classification, Origin and History of the Civilized Races Inhabiting the Continent of North America." He lectured by the discovery of Columbus. He lectures to-night again, giving a description of the manners, customs, arts and literature of the said civilized races. The professor comes to us as well recommended and the subject being one that should interest every intelligent citizen. We bespeak for him good audiences.

Many people have lost their interest in politics and in amusements because they are so out of sorts and run down that they cannot enjoy anything. If such persons would only be wise enough to try that celebrated remedy, Kidney-Wort, and experience its tonic and renovating effects they would soon be brimming with the brim. In either dry or liquid form it is a perfect remedy for torpid liver, kidneys or bowels. —Exchange.

Private Bowling.
Mrs. Vaughn respectfully informs the public that she is now prepared to accommodate any number of guests with meals at all times. Board without rooms, $2.00 per week; single meals 25 cents. Her table is always well filled with the best market afford, and that cooked in the best style. Gentlemen from the country attending court will find this to be the best as well as the cheapest place to procure meals. Give Mrs. Vaughn a call.
Miss Lizzie J. Box, Art Teacher of Harlan College, celebrated her birthday at the residence of Judge R. B. Moreley last Thursday night by inviting a number of her friends to take supper with her. We tender thanks for her kind remembrance of us.

On Bacon Beat.
A thief broke into the grocery store of Samuel K. Jones, at Rosine, last Sunday night and took 8 or 10 handfuls of bacon, and probably other goods. The thief had better keep an eye on Sheriff Rogers as he may slip upon him.

JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT.
Humphrey Brooks' adm., Plff., vs. Humphrey Brooks' heirs, Defs.
All persons having claims against the estate of Humphrey Brooks, deceased, are hereby notified to produce the same, properly proven, to the undersigned, Master Commissioner of said court, at his office in Harlan, Ky., on or before May 1, 1882, or they will be forever barred.
W. C. MIDKILL, living in the vicinity of Fordville, died Monday, of consumption. Mr. Midkill was a half brother of Mr. John Midkill, of this place.
Mr. Peyton Taylor, living near Bell's Run church, is quite sick with a cold of the bowels. Dr. Pendleton performed a surgical operation upon him one day last week, but at this writing he is in a very critical condition.

Mr. Harvey Patterson saw two deer in the wheat field on his farm near Centerville last week. They are the first deer seen in that neighborhood for a long time. Mr. P. supposes the high water drove them out of the cane-brakes.
Mrs. Prof. J. H. Harper, of Cornwell, is quite sick. Her mother, Mrs. M. A. Thomas, was telegraphed for Monday, when in company with her son, E. P. Thomas, left immediately to see her. At this writing we have not learned of the result of her illness.
LATER—Mrs. Harper is much better.

The next meeting of the West Kentucky Press Association will be held at Princeton, Wednesday, May 10th, 1882. President Zeno Young, of the Marshallville Times, promises a pleasant and profitable session, and every editor in the hands of the Association should attend.
A car load of corn just received at the Harlan Flour Mills. Plenty of meal, flour and chop on hand for sale at all times. Best cream flour $3.00 per 100 pounds; meal $1.00 per bushel; chop $1.00 per bushel. We expect to start our marketing machine about the 1st of May. JAS. H. & W. PARRISH.
The examining trial of Sam. C. Lamborn, charged with incest, was called by his honor Judge Newton, Monday. Defendant waived an examination and was admitted to bail in the sum of $500. No one went on his bond, and he was judged to await the action of the grand jury at the May term of Circuit Court.

I am indebted to Mrs. Jennie Alexander for the pleasure of seeing the collection of flowers from the different mountains in Harlan, and arranged in various artistic designs, each card giving the place where the collection was made. The flowers are much smaller than ours, and of a much brighter hue. Many thanks for this rare opportunity.
The tobacco factory at Riley's Station, occupied by George W. Jewell, of Harlan, Ohio county, burned to ashes last Thursday night. Mr. Jewell lost about twenty pounds of tobacco. We understand he had a small insurance on the tobacco. The building belonged to a man named Tanner. This is another evidence of the benefits of insurance.

James Medafie, alias Jim Cap, is in trouble again. Some time ago he was arrested on a charge of illicit distilling and taken to Louisville, where he was discharged. He came home and went to work again unking brandy, for which his distillery was registered, and on which he was required to make monthly reports. Two months passed and no report came in, and Deputy Collector Clark, of Greenville, dispatched Messrs. Eaves and Tinsley to bring the culprit to Limerick. He was caught and taken to Greenville, where he was lodged in jail. At last accounts he was endeavoring to secure bail.

Religious and Social Entertainment.
The Baptist church at Harlan, Ohio county, Ky., proposes a religious and social reunion on the fifth Sunday in this month, and respectfully invites her neighboring sister churches to unite with her in the entertainment, viz: Bell's Run, Harlan, Woodward's Valley, Sugar Creek, Green River, Oak Grove and Sugar Grove churches, and also the public generally.
Sermons by the pastor on the two following questions, being especially requested:
1st. "What is the Human Soul?"
2d. "Where is the Human Soul?"
All house-church members, living within convenient distance, are most respectfully solicited to bring with them well-filled baskets of plain and wholesome provisions that all may have plenty, and being fed there may be taken up more than "twelve baskets of fragments." Come one, come all, and let us have a good, pleasant and happy reunion.
By order of the church at Mr. Carmel, J. S. COLEMAN, Pastor.

A Greedy Thief.
Some thief on Bacon beat drew the staple of Mr. Chapman Crow's meat-house Tuesday night of last week, and took about 150 pounds of bacon, which was all Mr. Crow had at the time. No telling how much more the thief would have taken if it had been in the meat-house. We hope the thief will be caught and brought to justice.

Called In.
Mr. Renick of Louisville, cannot possibly find his appointment to lecture at McHenry to-night, on Old Fellowship, so the appointment has been called in.

Marriage Licenses.
F. M. Farmer and Mary E. Wells, E. A. Maddox and Sarah Kershaw, J. H. Midkill and Susan A. Bellamy.
Another Candidate.
By a large majority the people of the United States have declared their faith in Kidney-Wort as a remedy for all the diseases of the kidneys and liver, and, however, have abolished the trouble of preparing it from the dry form. For such a new candidate appears in the shape of Kidney-Wort in liquid form. It is very concentrated, is easily taken and is equally efficient as the dry. Try it. —Louisville Post.

Horton Hash.
April 15th, 1882.
Mr. Tuck Hether and family will move to Harlan, Ind., next month. Misses Anna Hether and Annie and Maggie Hether, of Irvine, Ky., were in town Sunday.
Mr. G. W. Hay went east last Saturday to visit an old friend, and will be home on Monday. The public character of the position as clerk for Wilson & Jones.
Mr. Will Palmer and Bran Wilson spent a few days at Beaver Dam last week—no sickness this time.
The members of the organizing brass band have secured Mr. Geo. Balford, valuable services in many of the bands of the city.

Cromwell Chatterbox.
April 20th, 1882.
News is scarce and times are dull. Died, on the 18th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Margaret Paxton, her youngest son, Sammie. Sammie was a worthy young gentleman. Some knew him but to the public character of a gentleman, which he possessed, and his numerous friends will be glad to hear that he has passed on to the hereafter, where he will be remembered by the person whose poor soul failed to break the fence.
Zeph.

Spring Lickings.
April 20th, 1882.
The weather is still cool which keeps vegetation back.
What is looking well; the prospect is better than for years.
Fishing is all the rage.
Jim Hoover and Lewis Downey, both of color, got into a fuss last night on the farm of J. W. Smith, about three miles from Harlan. The two men were killed. Killing him instantly. I understand Hoover is still in the country, and says he will give himself up. Hawney is said to have been quarreled, and is now in the hands of the law. The farmers are all busy farming. They begin to see the necessity of making a crop. If this is a good season we will have some corn and wheat. The next best method of having to send off and buy all of it.

Caneyville Millinery Store.
In the front upper room of H. Williams' establishment I have a full and complete line of millinery goods, hats, bonnets and trimmings of the very latest styles, a full assortment of lace, cream, white and black of all widths, latest styles of dress trimmings, a large stock of fancy notions, material for agricultural, wax, repeller and hair dowers, cream and muslin frames, etc., etc., which I sell at reasonable prices. Call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere. NANNIE WILSON.

Beaver Dam Jottings.
April 23rd, 1882.
Most of our farmers are done planting corn.
W. T. and Ed. Austin, sons of Rev. J. A. Austin, left last Monday for the Lone Star State, where they anticipate making their future home. We regret to lose them as they were among our best young men.
Born to the wife of Dr. J. L. Mitchell, a boy, weight, 10 pounds. The father, who passed over the Doctor's face, resembles the waves on a Green River millpond.

Called In.
Judge Ed. Cooper, of this place, is seriously ill, but is thought to be a little better at this writing.
We were glad to see the familiar face of Harry Kuhn on our streets yesterday. He is representing a Philadelphia band and shoe house.
